

Travis Broome, MPH, MBA
Policy Lead
Executive Director
Aledade, Inc.

Travis Broome leads Aledade's policy efforts in both Medicare and the commercial space to ensure a viable financial model for Accountable Care Organizations and population health. A veteran of the Center for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Travis most recently served as a Regional Manager at CMS. In this role he oversaw Medicare Part A & B, EHR, and ACO operations across five states. Prior to this, he was Team Lead for the group responsible for policy and oversight in implementing meaningful use for the EHR Incentive Programs and personally authored the first three regulations for meaningful use. Travis received Masters of Public Health, and of Business Administration in Health Care Organization and Policy from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.
